What information do we collect?

When you sign up for SKL Services, Inc. services, you provide us with both contact and payment information. Contact information typically includes your name, address, and phone number. Payment information can also include your credit card number.

While you are a SKL Services, Inc. customer, we manage information with regard to your account status, choice of services, and customer logs. In addition, we may store customers' electronic mail and other communications as a necessary incident to the transmission and delivery of those communications.

How do we use this information?

We use the contact information you provide us to establish our service for you. We use payment information for payment processing purposes only. We create and maintain other information such as customer account status, choice of services, and customer logs in the normal course of providing service.

In order to measure how we are doing and to better understand how we can improve our product offerings, we or one of our service providers or certified strategic partners may contact you by telephone or email and solicit your participation in research. All third parties will be entered into a nondisclosure contract and be bonded where applicable.

We will not otherwise disclose customer personal and account information unless we have reason to believe that disclosing such information is necessary to identify, make contact with, or bring legal action against someone who may be causing harm or interfering with the rights or property of SKL Services, Inc., our customers, or others, or where SKL Services, Inc. has a good faith belief that the law requires such disclosure.

SKL Services, Inc. also will not, except for reasons stated below, disclose to third parties the contents of any electronic mail or other electronic communications that SKL Services, Inc. stores or transmits for its customers. The circumstances under which SKL Services, Inc. will disclose such electronic customer communications are when:

1. It is necessary in order to provide service to the customer;
2. It is necessary to protect the legitimate interests of SKL Services, Inc. and its customers;
3. It is required to cooperate with interception orders, warrants, or other legal process that SKL Services, Inc. determines in its sole discretion to be valid and enforceable; and
4. It is necessary to provide to a law enforcement agency when the contents are inadvertently obtained by SKL Services, Inc. and appear to pertain to the commission of a crime.

SKL Services, Inc. disclaims any intention to censor, edit, or engage in ongoing review or surveillance of communications stored on or transmitted through its facilities by customers or others. SKL Services, Inc. will, however, review, delete, or block access to communications that may harm SKL Services, Inc., its customers or third parties. The grounds on which SKL Services, Inc. may take such action include, but are not limited to, actual or potential violations of SKL Services, Inc. Terms of Use.

Customers may opt out of receiving newsletters and/or notices of new or upgraded products from SKL Services, Inc. by sending a request to us via the contact form. In this request, customers must identify their domain name and contact information.

Please note, however, that SKL Services, Inc. reserves the right to send bulletins and other important information regarding our services at our discretion.
